The mandate of RIDERS is to promote and co-ordinate English equestrian activities in Nova Scotia. Membership entitles you to:

- Participate in meetings and planning of special events.
- Participate in schooling shows, clinics and fun rides organized by the members.
- Attend any and all social events and/or educational opportunities (e.g., dessert parties, lectures).

This society is open to all residents of Nova Scotia who are interested in English Riding. The events that are scheduled will be determined by the interest of the members and willingness to participate on some level in the organization of events.

Please indicate areas in which you are interested in participating:
